The Intensive is all about YOU-- loving yourSelf, recognizing your vision for your life, and expressing that vision with freedom, passion and power! The capital S in "yourSelf" is intentional, by the way. It refers to your most powerful Self, the one that operates from heart, spirit and vision. No matter how great your life has been since finishing The Experience, The Intensive will help you expand to unimagined heights, and depth. The Intensive is four dynamic and empowering days, where you can expect to be engaged, probably challenged, and have fun. A lot of fun. Best of all, you'll leave even better prepared to live in harmony and on your own terms. Everything about The Intensive will expand your life...

Your Vision Reveals Your Path

Your personal vision is the organizing principle for your life; it's what you declare your life to be about. As you create (or refine) your vision, you'll clarify the pathway to your future.

Commitment Means No Matter What

To manifest your vision, you must trust yourSelf to stay committed, to know that you can hold fast, no matter what. You will very likely create a breakthrough experience and go beyond your comfort zone and what you might believe is possible. You will really feel your power! You Are the Authority

To declare and manifest a vision, you must know you are the authority in your own life. Stop feeling blindsided by limitations from the past and release any blocks to experiencing yourSelf as your own authority. Manifestation 101 Achieve a large goal of your choosing in a short period of time. You'll notice what, if anything, gets in the way of producing the results you say you're committed to. You'll also be able to break through your personal barriers to success, so you will always know you can do anything you set your sights on. Present YourSelf Powerfully Truly see how you present yourSelf, and discover how you are received by others, as you get invaluable support to fine-tune for maximum success and effectiveness. Be Here Now

Reveal yourSelf in a variety of ways through verbal and non-verbal exercises that naturally support you in shifting from your head to your heart to stop holding yourself back and start expressing yourself even more fully. Communicate for Results

Discover more about how you can speak and listen for results, and have your communications empower yourSelf and others. More powerful communication will revolutionize every area of your life. Universal Energy

Journey inside to focus on your vision and return with a deeper connection to your own spirituality and all of life.

All four days flow together seamlessly, building to a richer and deeper experience of your life, and catapulting you into an ever more powerful way of being.

The Intensive focuses on "going for it" - the ability, willingness, and skills to follow through in developing and achieving your vision and any other goals you choose. Workshop details

The Intensive lasts five days.

Days 1-4 begin at 9 o'clock in the morning and include a one hour lunch break and several shorter breaks throughout the day. We conclude before dinner each day.

Day 5 is for you to rest and integrate what you have gained in the prior 4 days of The Intensive. It also allows you to solidify relationships with fellow participants, if you wish-- many lifetime friendships are forged in The Intensive. That evening we reconvene in a relaxed opportunity to be together, deepen learning and connection, and share in a more casual setting. It takes place at our home and includes dinner.

Drury Plaza Hotel is the host hotel for The Intensive. Located in the historic heart of Santa Fe, the Drury sits on five beautiful acres and brings friendly, award-winning hospitality service to the City Different. It is convenient to all local attractions, including the nearby historic Plaza, where you may enjoy many fine restaurants, galleries, museums, and shops.
