Have you ever wondered why some people seem to go through life effortlessly and joyfully, attracting the relationships, circumstances, and fulfillment they desire, while others (maybe you) struggle?

There's nothing special about those who live more powerfully. They come from all walks of life, family backgrounds, income, and educational levels. They are men, women, gay, straight, black, white, Christian, atheist, and more.

They have simply learned how to expand their consciousness, and you can, too. Children express this freedom naturally. Then the experiences of growing up often teach us to withhold ourselves, to play it safe, maybe even to think and act like victims. Living in any kind of a closet is no fun.

It doesn't have to be that way!

In The Experience, you can discover and actually experience what it means to live more powerfully, to be fully self-expressive, and to connect deeply with yourself and others. It isn't the same as reading a book or watching a movie; it's about deeply exploring and expanding yourself in real time.

Sometimes, living more powerfully feels like learning something new, and sometimes, it just feels like remembering-- remembering the freedom, wisdom, and joy that are innate to us as human beings.

The Experience is an opportunity for you to see your life, past and present, from many angles, showing you exactly what is working and what is not, and to reconnect with your truest self. In this expanded context, you will be able to see and experience your life, perhaps even your history, in a new light.

You'll discover more about yourself, and how you relate to the world around you. You'll be able to create more of what you want from life--

- authentic personal relationships
 - effective leadership skills
 - more success in business
 - greater financial freedom

 - deeper spiritual development
 - stronger sense of physical and mental well-being
 - more positive self-image and identity
 - oodles more success and fulfillment
- In some ways it's about Coming Out-- coming out in all ways, since sexual orientation is just one of the ways in which we can hold back. The Experience even founded National Coming Out Day!

The Experience will inspire and support you to stop holding back and start getting everything you want out of life. During three full days, you explore how you function in a variety of settings and circumstances, all crafted to allow you to see how you feel about yourself as you interact with others.

You'll experience living with more love, passion, and power, and you'll discover how to use the Consciousness Measuring Scale©, a fabulous resource that helps you achieve more success in ANY area of your life.

Through guided visualizations, individual and group sharing, writing exercises, interactive processes, and facilitator support, you will see an expanded vision of your life, and the possibilities for your future.

You'll also learn how to use Energy Medicine to shift beliefs, stop negative thinking, and deal with stress and anxiety. You may even learn to make pain disappear. It happens all the time.

In The Experience, you learn to make choices that produce the results and the experiences you desire. Regardless of your past, you can create the present and future you choose.

Imagine the possibilities!

You've invested in your education and career. Now it's time to invest in your life. The proactive, confidential, distraction-free environment allows you to focus on your goals and your self.

It's time to start designing the life you choose, and stop simply reacting to whatever comes your way. Workshop Details

The Experience lasts four days.

Days 1-3 begin at 9 o'clock in the morning and include a one hour lunch break plus several shorter breaks throughout the day. We conclude early enough each evening for you to enjoy a relaxing dinner and get a good night's rest.

Day 4 is for you to rest and integrate what you have gained in the prior three days of the workshop. It also allows you to solidify relationships with fellow participants, if you wish-- many forge lifetime friendships in The Experience. That evening we reconvene in a relaxed opportunity to be together, deepen learning and connection, and share in a more casual setting. It takes place at our home and includes dinner.

Testimonials Don't just take it from me, read what others have to say about The Experience...

Before The Experience, I didn't love myself enough or really take care of myself either. I spent all my time taking care of others instead, becoming burned out and resentful. In this workshop, I really learned how to love myself more and still be the loving, giving person I always was, without giving myself away, too. That gift of balance was powerful for me and it was a gift that I discovered within the structure and love of The Experience workshop.

Honey Ward is an excellent leader, but is at her very best when dealing with life problems on a one-to-one basis. Somehow at once confrontational and accepting, she won't let you think one iota less of yourself than your full potential!

As a gay man, there aren't a lot of guideposts for creating a successful relationship. The tools I got from The Experience help me form and maintain a deeper and more lasting bond with my partner.

The Experience taught me how to respond, not react, to other people's stress and verbal outbursts. I use those tools everyday to be a more effective emergency physician. In high-stress interactions with the victims of disease, trauma, and abuse, the emotional turmoil of the Emergency Department can seem overwhelming. Since completing The Experience, I have become a better physician by moving quietly, effectively, and lovingly through multitudes of patients who need calm strength and effective and compassionate care.

As an experiential educator, I have high standards when I enter a workshop environment. Without a doubt, this workshop met and exceeded my standards. I gained valuable knowledge and skills for both my professional and personal life. I now understand why this workshop is entitled "The Experience." It was a true experience of intimacy created within a group of people. The exercises, activities, workbook, journaling, and sharing helped to further open my heart to loving myself and understanding my own power to live a full and satisfying life. Without hesitation, I would recommend The Experience to anyone seeking a powerful personal growth experience or to professionals seeking to gain valuable skills for the work environment. The Experience weekend was the best personal investment I've ever made. It gave me the jump-start I needed in my life and career. I immediately gained improvements in my communication skills, interviewing techniques, personal focus, and work-life balance. As a result, my relationships have grown stronger, my career goals have been surpassed, and my life is richer than I ever imagined!

Although I participated in The Experience 25 years ago, the things I learned in the workshop come into play every single day of my life. Having a deeper understanding of how our emotions and attitudes work, realizing how decisions made as a child or a teenager affect my life as an adult, being able to communicate in a clearer fashion with family and friends, and knowing what our judgments of other people and their judgments of us are all about has made life much more effortless and much less difficult. Through the Experience I was able to get a very clear vision of how I wanted my life to be, and that is exactly how my life has been over the last quarter century.
